Globalization and Privatisation.
Summary / essay writing

In today's world globalisation is considered to be a measure by which the economic ills of a country can be solved. Globalization has brought the world ~~and~~ very close to each other. Today we have good relationship with other countries we know about what is happening in other parts of the countries due to globalization.

India is also building her economy. Today we have to compete with others in every factors. So at this hour, it's an urgent need that we have good relation with other countries. So globalization is the need of the hour.

We all know, no economy can work in isolation. Hence, our government too have opened the markets for other countries. Through globalization, now import and export has become easier. But there is competition. Now we manufacture goods of better quality so as to face international market. Now we have improved goods and services. The prices of the goods are also maintained. Now a days new technology are being used, to make our goods more saleable.

Privatization is also a need for a country like

India, as it enhances work quality, and work efficiency. Privatization needs more dedication, more working hours and quality work. All these will ultimately lead to better production and better quality goods. This will ultimately make us lead in the international market. Hence we will improve economically.

So Privatization and Globalisation are the need of the hour to make our economy stand comparable to others and to make progress
